Fifth Edition

Printed August 2017

Introduction

The importance of memory work is being questioned by many in today's world. However, sound educators have always believed that it is academically essential for children to accumulate information in an exact form in their mind. History proves that this is a valid and powerful tool for intellectual growth. Positive results are found in training our memory to recall sentence structure and new vocabulary accurately. The following texts provide a challenge for our students.

Yet the acquisition of the ensuing texts in our student's minds is not simply an academic exercise. As Lutherans we believe that the Holy Spirit works faith through the Word. As the children memorize these texts, the Holy Spirit is given the opportunity to draw them closer to their Savior by pouring out in their lives His grace and forgiveness. The Spirit will also lead them into a life of sanctification and service to their neighbor. Even if the full meaning of the texts is not recognized now, the book provides a beginning of spiritual enlightenment.

The purpose of our memory book is to shape and direct the children's spirituality – helping them to focus on their Savior and His Word. Instructive Bible verses, prayers, the Small Catechism and Christ-centered Lutheran Hymns are used in order to foster a positive, Christian ethos among the students. This will encourage them to remain grounded in the true faith which always centers on the Savior. By reciting the Word of God, the children will learn more of their Savior's unending love for them.

The texts loosely follow our liturgical calendar incorporating those seasons and festivals which occur during the school year. The exact dates, of course, vary from year to year, but they generally follow the course of the church year including: Advent, Christmas, Epiphany, Transfiguration, Lent, Holy Week, Easter, Ascension, Pentecost, Trinity, and Reformation. This book may be useful for the entire family as it prays, sings, and reads God's Word together through the year.

The committing of these texts to our student's memory will aid them throughout life as they recall their reassuring message in times of change, temptation, and distress (2 Timothy 3:15-17). Christians experiencing adversity or uncertainty often remark on the great comfort provided by meditating on Christian texts committed to memory. These texts also provide an essential source of knowledge for the students to draw from when called to give an answer for the hope that lives within them (1 Peter 3:15).

May this book provide a solid spiritual foundation which guides our children through all of life – helping them to remain close to their Savior – Jesus Christ – and His gifts of Word and Sacrament!

Tips for Memorization

A text is assigned for each day of the school year. The students are expected to return to school the following day with the text memorized. On review days multiple texts may need to be recited.

Review day requirements may be slightly adjusted by the teacher depending on the level of difficulty. Parental involvement is key for proper memorization of these texts. Parents need to encourage and support their children as they learn God's Word.

1. Review your memory work assignments as a family. Read these texts and sing them in your home. Spiritual blessings will be seen by the entire household.
2. As the year goes on, keep these verses, hymns and prayers in the devotional repository of your child's life.
3. Beginning memory work as soon as the school day concludes and then a second time later in the evening is most likely to fix the words in your child's mind clearly. Avoid last-minute memorization!
4. Explaining the meaning and vocabulary of the text to your child will prove beneficial. The more your child understands about the text the better they will be able to recite it. Even when your child does not understand the meaning of the text, it remains beneficial for the text to be set in their memory.

5. Recite the text at the dinner table and at evening or bedtime devotions.
6. Repeating small portions of the text again and again to your child – and then slowly building on what has been learned may prove effective.
7. Music aids memorization. This book contains many hymns and parts of the liturgy which are set to music. Those marked LSB are taken from the Lutheran Service Book. Those marked TLH are taken from The Lutheran Hymnal. Your child will likely find it easier to recall the hymns and liturgy if they are sung rather than spoken. All of the tunes can be found on the internet to assist in singing them with your children. Please ask for more information.
8. As your child begins to read, challenge the child to read the texts by themselves. Afterwards, you can use a white board or chalk board to have your child write the words and then erase the words one by one to see if they can recite the entire phrase or sentence without looking.
9. The more flawlessly the text is recited, the better it will be retained.
10. Test your child before they return to school.

25) O Lord, we praise Thee, bless Thee, and adore
Thee,
In thanksgiving bow thee.
Thou with Thy body and Thy blood didst
nourish
Our weak souls that they may flourish:

O Lord, have mercy! (LSB 617:1)

26) Thy holy body into death was given,
Life to win for us in heaven.
No greater love than this to Thee could bind us;
May this feast there of remind us!
O Lord have mercy!

Lord, Thy kindness did so constrain Thee

And live together here in love and union

Let not Thy good Spirit forsake us;
Grant that heavenly minded He make us;
Give Thy Church, Lord, to see
Days of peace and unity:
O Lord have mercy! (LSB 617:3)
- 30) Bless the LORD, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits, who forgives all your iniquity, who heals all your diseases – Psalm 103:2-3
- 31) ...not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day drawing near. – Hebrews 10:25;
- And they devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and the fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers. – Acts
2:42

32) I am the LORD; that is my name; my glory I give to no other, nor my praise to carved idols. – Isaiah 42:8;

It is the LORD your God you shall fear. Him you shall serve and by his name you shall swear. – Deuteronomy 6:13

33) Judge not, and you will not be judged; condemn not, and you will not be condemned; forgive, and you will be forgiven; Luke 6:37

34) Salvation unto us has come
By God's free grace and favor;
Good works cannot avert our doom,
They help and save us never.
Faith looks to Jesus Christ alone,
Who did for all the world atone;
He is our one Redeemer. (LSB 555:1)

35) What God did in His Law demand
And none to Him could render
Caused wrath and woe on ev'ry hand
For man, the vile offender.
Our flesh has not those pure desires
The spirit of the Law requires,
And lost is our condition. (LSB 555:2)

36) It was a false, misleading dream
That God His Law had given
That sinners should themselves redeem
And by their works gain heaven.
The Law is but a mirror bright

To bring the inbred sin to light
That lurks within our nature. (LSB 555:3)

37) From sin our flesh could not abstain,
Sin held its sway unceasing;
The task was useless and in vain,
Our guilt was e'er increasing.
None can remove sin's poisoned dart
Or purify our guileful heart –
So deep is our corruption. (LSB 555:4)

38) Yet as the Law must be fulfilled
Or we must die despairing,
Christ came and hath God's anger stilled,
Our human nature sharing.
He has for us the Law obeyed
And thus the Father's vengeance stayed
Which over us impended. (LSB 555:5)

39) Since Christ has full atonement made
And brought to us salvation,
Each Christian therefore may be glad
And build on this foundation.
Your grace alone, dear Lord, I plead,
Your death is now my life indeed,
For You have paid my ransom. (LSB
555:6)

40) Let me not doubt, but truly see
Your Word cannot be broken;
Your call rings out, “Come unto Me!”
No falsehood have You spoken.
Baptized into Your precious name,

My faith cannot be put to shame,
And I shall never perish. (LSB 555:7)

41) The Law reveals the guilt of sin
And makes us conscience-stricken;
But then the Gospel enters in
The sinful soul to quicken.
Come to the cross, trust Christ, and live;
The Law no peace can ever give,
No comfort and no blessing. (LSB 555:8)

42) Faith clings to Jesus' cross alone
And rests in Him unceasing;
And by its fruits true faith is known,
With love and hope increasing.
For faith alone can justify;
Works serve our neighbor and supply
The proof that faith is living. (LSB 555:9)

43) All blessing, honor, thanks, and praise
To Father, Son, and Spirit,
The God who saved us by His grace;
All glory to His merit.
O Triune God in heav'n above,
You have revealed Your saving love;
Your blessed name we hallow. (LSB 555:10)

44) For I know that nothing good dwells in me, that is, in my flesh. For I have the desire to do what is right, but not the ability to carry it out. – Romans 7:18;

And you were dead in the trespasses and sins. – Ephesians 2:1

- 45) Who can discern his errors? Declare me innocent from hidden faults. – Psalm 19:12;

And the son said to him, ‘Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you. I am no longer worthy to be called your son.’ – Luke 15:21

- 46) And speak to the people of Israel, saying, Whoever curses his God shall bear his sin. – Leviticus 24:15;

You shall not swear by my name falsely, and so profane the name of your God: I am the LORD. – Leviticus 19:12

- 47) Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him. – 1 John 3:15;

A false witness will not go unpunished, and he who breathes out lies will not escape. – Proverbs 19:5

- 48) Dear Christians, one and all, rejoice,
With exultation springing,
And with united heart and voice
And holy rapture singing,
Proclaim the wonders God has done,
How His right arm the vict’ry won.

What price our ransom cost Him! (LSB 556:1)

49) Fast bound in Satan's chains I lay,
Death brooded darkly over me,
Sin was my torment night and day;
In sin my mother bore me.
But daily deeper still I fell;
My life became a living hell,
So firmly sin possessed me. (LSB 556:2)

50) My own good works all came to naught,
No grace or merit gaining;
Free will against God's judgment fought,
Dead to all good remaining.
My fears increased till sheer despair
Left only death to my share;
The pangs of hell I suffered. (LSB 556:3)

51) But God had seen my wretched state
Before the world's foundation,
And mindful of his mercies great,
He planned for my salvation.
He turned to me a father's heart;
He did not choose easy part
But gave his dearest treasure. (LSB 556:4)

52) God said to his beloved Son:
"It's time to have compassion.
Then go, bright jewel of my crown,
And bring to all salvation;
From sin and sorrow set them free;

Slay bitter death for them that they May live with you forever." (LSB 556:5)

53) The Son obeyed his Father's will,
Was born of virgin mother;
And God's good pleasure to fulfill,
He came to be my brother.
His royal power disguised he bore,
A servant's form, like mine, he wore
To lead the devil captive. (LSB 556:6)

54) To me he said: "Stay close to me,
I am your rock and castle.
Your ransom I myself will be;
For you I strive and wrestle;
For I am yours, and you are mine,
And where I am you may remain;
The foe shall not divide us. (LSB 556:7)

55) "Though he will shed my precious blood,
Of life me thus bereaving,
All this I suffer for your good;
Be steadfast and believing.
Life will from death the victory win;
My innocence shall bear your sin;
And you are blest forever. (LSB 556:8)

56) "Now to my Father I depart,
From earth to heaven ascending,
And heavenly wisdom to impart,
The Holy spirit sending;
In trouble he will comfort your

And teach you always to be true
And into truth shall guide you. (LSB 556:9)

57) What I on earth have done and taught
Guide all your life and teaching;
So shall the kingdom's work be wrought
And honored in your preaching.
But watch lest foes with base alloy
The heavenly treasure should destroy;
This final word I leave you." (LSB 556:10)

58) Review Third Grade Lesson 165

59) Fill with the radiance of Your grace
The souls now lost in error's maze;
Enlighten those whose inmost minds
Some dark delusion haunts and blinds.
(LSB 839:2)

60) O gently call those gone astray
That they may find the saving way!
Let ev'ry conscience sore oppressed
In You find peace and heav'nly rest. (LSB
839:3)

61) Shine on the darkened and the cold;
Recall the wand'ers to Your fold.
Unite all those who walk apart;
Confirm the weak and doubting heart, (LSB
839:4)

62) That they with us may evermore
Such grace with wond'ring thanks adore

And endless praise to You be giv'n
By all Your Church in earth and heav'n.
(LSB 839:5)

63) Review Third Grade Lesson 133 & 134 (hymn follows - Check)

64) Sheep that from the fold did stray
    No true shepherd e'er forsaketh;

Jesus sinners doth receive. (LSB 609:3)

65) I, a sinner, come to Thee

For these words I now believe:
Jesus sinners doth receive. (LSB 609:5)

67) Now my conscience is at peace;

And my ev'ry sin remitted.
Naught remains my soul to grieve:

Jesus sinners doth receive. (LSB 609:6)

Jesus sinners doth receive. (LSB 609:7)

71) But you, O Bethlehem Ephrathah, who are too little to be among the clans

of Judah,

from you shall come forth for me

one who is to be ruler in Israel,

whose coming forth is from of old,

from ancient days. – Micah 5:2

Ere the worlds began to be,

He the Source, the Ending He,
Of the things that are, that have been,
And that future years shall see
Evermore and evermore. (LSB 384:1)
- 74) Oh that birth forever blessed,
When the virgin full of grace,
By the Holy Ghost conceiving,
Bore the Savior of our race,
And the babe, the world's Redeemer,
First revealed His sacred face
Evermore and evermore. (LSB 384:2)
- 75) This is He whom seers in old time
Chanted of with one accord,
Whom the voices of the prophets
Promised in their faithful word.
Now He shines, the Long-expected;
Let creation praise its Lord
Evermore and evermore. (LSB 384:3)
- 76) O ye heights of heaven, adore Him;
Angel hosts, His praises sing;
Powers, dominions, bow before Him
And extol our God and King.
Let no tongue on earth be silent,
Every voice in concert ring
Evermore and evermore. (LSB 384:4)

- 77) Christ, to Thee, with God the Father,
And, O Holy Ghost, to Thee
Hymn and chant and high thanksgiving
And unending praises be,
Honor, glory, and dominion,
And eternal victory
Evermore and evermore. (LSB 384:5)
- 78) But when the fullness of time had come, God sent forth his Son, born of woman, born under the law, to redeem those who were under the law, so that we might receive adoption as sons. – Galatians 4:4-5

A Savior unto us is born,
The Christ, the Lord of glory!

- 80) Rejoice, rejoice this happy morn,
A Savior unto us is born,
The Christ, the Lord of glory!
His lowly birth at Bethlehem
The angels from on high proclaim
And sing redemption's story!
My soul, extol
God's great favor;
Bless him ever
For salvation;
Give him praise and adoration! (LSB 391)

- 81) But as he considered these things, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream, saying, “Joseph, son of David, do not fear to take Mary as your wife, for that which is conceived in her is from the Holy Spirit. She will bear a son, and you shall call his name Jesus, for he will save his people from their sins.” – Matthew 1:20-21
- 82) All this took place to fulfill what the Lord had spoken by the prophet: “Behold, the virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and they shall call his name Immanuel (which means, God with us). – Matthew 1:22-23
- 83) Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old has passed away; behold, the new has come. – 2 Corinthians 5:17;

- 87) ...he has fixed a day on which he will judge the world in righteousness by a man whom he has appointed; and of this he has given assurance to all by raising him from the dead. – Acts 17:31

- 88) And just as it is appointed for man to die once, and after that comes judgment, so Christ, having been offered once to bear the sins of many, will appear a second time, not to deal with sin but to save those who are eagerly waiting for him. – Hebrews 9:27-28

- 89) God's own child, I gladly say it:
I am baptized into Christ!
He, because I could not pay it,
Gave my full redemption price.
Do I need earth's treasures many?
I have one worth more than any
That brought me salvation free
Lasting to eternity! (LSB 594:1)

90) Sin, disturb my soul no longer:
I am baptized into Christ!
I have comfort even stronger:
Jesus cleansing sacrifice.
Should a guilty conscience seize me
Since my Baptism did release me
In a dear forgiving flood,
Sprinkling me with Jesus' blood (LSB 594:2)

91) Satan, hear this proclamation:
I am baptized into Christ!
Drop your ugly accusation,
I am not so soon enticed.
Now that to the font I've traveled,
All your might has come unraveled,
And, against your tyranny,
God, my Lord, unites with me! (LSB 594:3)

92) Death, you cannot end my gladness:
I am baptized into Christ!
When I die, I leave all sadness
To inherit paradise!
Though I lie in dust and ashes
Faith's assurance brightly flashes:
Baptism has the strength divine
To make life immortal mine. (LSB 594:4)

93) There is nothing worth comparing
To this lifelong comfort sure!
Opened eyed my grave is staring
Even there I'll sleep secure.
Though my flesh awaits its raising,
Still my soul continues praising:

I am baptized into Christ;
I'm a child of paradise! (LSB 594:5)

94) Confession: What is Confession? Confession has two parts. First, that we confess our sins, and second, that we receive absolution, that is, forgiveness, from the pastor as from God Himself, not doubting, but firmly believing that by it our sins are forgiven before God in heaven.

95) What sins should we confess? Before God we should plead guilty of all sins, even those we are not aware of, as we do in the Lord's Prayer; but before the pastor we should confess only those sins which we know and feel in our hearts.

96) Which are these? Consider your place in life according to the Ten Commandments: Are you a father, mother, son, daughter, husband, wife, or worker? Have you been disobedient, unfaithful, or lazy? Have you been hot-tempered, rude, or quarrelsome? Have you hurt someone by your words or deeds? Have you stolen, been negligent, wasted anything, or done any harm?

97) What is the Office of the Keys? The Office of the Keys is that special authority which Christ has given to His church on earth to forgive the sins of repentant sinners, but to withhold forgiveness from the unrepentant as long as they do not repent.

98) Where is this written? This is what St. John the Evangelist writes in chapter twenty: The Lord Jesus breathed on His disciples and said, “Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive anyone his sins, they are forgiven; if you do not forgive them, they are not forgiven.” (John 20:22–23)

99) What do you believe according to these words? I believe that when the called ministers of Christ deal with us by His divine command, in particular when they exclude openly unrepentant sinners from the Christian congregation and absolve those who repent of their sins and want to do better, this is just as valid and certain, even in heaven, as if Christ our dear Lord dealt with us Himself.

100) Review Second Grade Lesson 102

101) Restrain, O Lord, the human pride
That seeks to thrust Your truth aside
Or with some man-made thoughts or things
Would dim the words Your Spirit sings.
(LSB 585:5)

102) Stay with us, Lord, and keep us true;
Preserve our faith our whole life through
Your Word alone our heart’s defense,

The Church's glorious confidence. (LSB 585:6)

- 103) The Sacrament of the Altar: What is the Sacrament of the Altar? It is the true body and blood of our Lord Jesus Christ under the bread and wine, instituted by Christ Himself for us Christians to eat and to drink.
- 104) Where is this written? The holy Evangelists Matthew, Mark, Luke, and St. Paul write: Our Lord Jesus Christ, on the night when He was betrayed, took bread, and when He had given thanks, He broke it and give it to the disciples and said; "Take, eat; this is My body, which is given for you. This do in remembrance of Me."
- 105) In the same way also He took the cup after supper, and when He had given thanks, He gave it to them, saying, "Drink of it, all of you; this cup is the new testament in My blood, which is shed for you for the forgiveness of sins. This do, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of Me."
- 106) What is the benefit of this eating and drinking? These words, "Given and shed for you for the forgiveness of sins," show us that in the Sacrament forgiveness of sins, life, and salvation are given us through these words.

For where there is forgiveness of sins, there is also life and salvation.

- 107) How can bodily eating and drinking do such great things? Certainly not just eating and drinking do these things, but the words written here: “Given and shed for you for the forgiveness of sins.” These words, along with the bodily eating and drinking, are the main thing in the Sacrament. Whoever believes these words has exactly what they say: “forgiveness of sins.”
- 108) Who receives this sacrament worthily? Fasting and bodily preparation are certainly fine outward training. But that person is truly worthy and well prepared who has faith in these words: “Given and shed for you for the forgiveness of sins.” But anyone who does not believe these words or doubts them is unworthy and unprepared, for the words “for you” require all hearts to believe.
- 109) Therefore, confess your sins to one another and pray for one another, that you may be healed. The prayer of a righteous person has great power as it is working. James 5:16

I will suffer naught to hide Thee;
Naught I ask beside Thee. (LSB 743:1)

Cannot reach me here.
Though the earth be shaking,
Ev'ry heart be quaking,
Jesus calms my fear.

And thunders crash;
Yet, though sin and hell assail me,
Jesus will not fail me. (LSB 743:2)

- 116) Satan, I defy thee;
Death, I now decry thee;
Fear, I bid thee cease.

Nor thy threats alarm me
While I sing of peace.

Guards ev'ry hour;
Earth and all its depths adore Him,
Silent bow before Him. (LSB 743:3)
- 117) Hence, all earthly treasure!
Jesus is my pleasure,
Jesus is my choice.

Shall not from my Savior move me
Since He deigns to love me. (LSB 743:4)
- 118) Evil world, I leave thee;
Thou canst not deceive me,
Thine appeal is vain.

Come not forth again.
Past thy hour,
O pride and pow'r;
Sinful life, thy bonds I sever,
Leave thee now forever. (LSB 743:5)

119) Hence, all fear and sadness!
For the Lord of gladness,
Jesus, enters in.

I here must bear,
Thou art still my purest pleasure,
Jesus, priceless treasure! (LSB 743:6)
