

Cordelia's Classical Cookies

All Proceeds Go to Luther Classical College

Luther Classical College is planning to open in the fall of 2025 in Casper, Wyoming. This college will be unlike all other LCMS colleges in that it will be only for Lutherans. Because of this, it will preserve our Lutheran heritage and Christian culture in a time when it is desperately needed. For more information on this extremely important mission, please visit LutherClassical.org.

Cordelia's Classical Cookies has sold over 400 dozen cookies and raised well over $2,500 for Luther Classical College since January 2022, when it was started. Please consider donating directly to the college or buying cookies from Cordelia today!

Please see the back of this sheet to order.
